A WORD FROM THE DOCKMASTER

John Workman
Dockmaster

Happy Spring to Everyone at Marina Bay. Yes, we are enjoying beautiful weather in recent weeks and look forward to a hot summer. Those of you from the Northeast have been following its varying weather: rain one day, snow one day, sunshine one day. If changes in the weather pattern impacts your summer plans, we need to know.

It is very helpful to know IN ADVANCE when you are planning to depart the marina, especially when that departure date differs from your original date. Our goal is to keep all slips occupied and to do so, we need to know when you will be here. We also have routine maintenance and upgrades to the docks that we will continue in the next few months.

Good communication makes all of our work easier! – John

ANGEL HAIR CHICKEN

by Kelly at Paul Barnett Seafood

Ingredients: 6 boneless chicken breast

(sliced in half)

1/4 cup butter

1 (0.7 ounce) package of dry

Italian style salad dressing mix

1/2 cup white wine

1 – (10.75 ounce) can of condensed golden mushroom soup

4 ounces Philadelphia cream
cheese

1 lb. angel hair pasta

Directions: Preheat oven 325 degrees.

In your large saucepan, melt butter over low heat and stir in package of Italian dressing mix. Stir in wine and golden mushroom soup, blending each. Mix in cream cheese – stir until smooth. Heat sauce completely, but don't let it boil.

Put chicken in single layer in 9x13 inch baking dish. Pour sauce over the chicken. Bake for 60 minutes or until inner temperature reaches 165 degrees. After 40 minutes, boil angel hair pasta and cook al dente (5-6 minutes). Then toss chicken and sauce over pasta. ❖
